

Eurofins Biomnis is the leading provider of Medical Laboratory Services and part of one of the largest medical laboratory groups in Europe. We perform over 1.5 million patient tests every year for more than 1,000 clients throughout the country. We are a medically led and ISO accredited organisation dedicated to delivering accurate and reliable medical results that help health care professionals to diagnose, treat and prevent disease. Due to continued expansion, we now require a:

MEDICAL SCIENTIST IN HISTOLOGY/HISTOPATHOLOGY

Reporting to the Chief Medical Scientist as an integral part of our histology Department, the successful candidate will be responsible will have practical experience in Cellular Pathology and the relevant histology knowledge. As a competent experienced Histologist with a flexible approach to work you will be required to rotate through all routine histopathology service including embedding, microtomy (manual and automatic), staining, cut -up of all specimens, cytology, special immunohistochemical stains, gross dissection of major organs of the body, etc.

We offer an attractive salary of between €40,000 - €43,000 per annum depending on experience.

Minimum Qualifications required:

- Posses a recognised qualification as a Medical Scientist accredited by the Academy of Clinical Science and Laboratory Medicine
- Have a permission to work in Ireland
- Posses a professional qualification validated by ACSLM if qualified outside Ireland

Professional Experience:

- Ideally, at least 6 months experience in histology

Skills and abilities required for this post:

- Excellent English language
- Highly responsible and self driven

Interested applicants should send a C.V.: Ms Helena Mazurkiewicz, HR Generalist, Human Resources Department, Eurofins Biomnis, Three Rock Road, Sandyford Business Estate, Dublin 18. Email: hr@eurofins-biomnis.ie.